Welcome to the 23rd Herefordshire Art Week

h.Art is a not to be missed early Autumn treat involving 428 artists in 138 venues.

9 days of joyful inspiration, unique finds, and the chance to buy direct from the creator. Meet creatives in their personal spaces, pop up shows in unexpected places and discover our galleries.

Many artists only open their work spaces once a year, giving you a rare insight into their creative lives and their individual practice. You can chat, browse, buy, or commission direct.

Miranda Walker-Whitten, the Emerging Artist Bursary Winner see page 34.

Don't forget the website www.h-art.org.uk – it's live all year and gives you the opportunity to keep up to date with all the artists new work. You can search by Venue, Artist, Location, Gallery, or Artform.

Some Venues open for h.Art Christmas events, see details from early November on the home page.

Your fold out map of the county showing all locations of all h.Art venues is attached in the back. City and town maps start on page 41.

Your information will not be shared with third parties.

A photograph showing the interior of a large, ornate church. The view is from the back of the sanctuary looking forward. The floor is covered with a long, narrow, patterned carpet in shades of red, yellow, and black. The walls are high and feature Gothic-style architecture with pointed arches and stained glass windows. The ceiling is a dark, vaulted wooden structure. The altar area is visible at the far end, with a large, ornate altar and a tall, narrow stained glass window above it. The lighting is warm and comes from candles and small lamps.

Sixteen artists in the splendid surroundings of Ross Parish Church, three of them new this year.

Sally Boehme, Brenda Boyle, Vanessa Burley, Caroline Davies, Lisa Dear, Sarah Delahoy, Mary Deaville, Sian Gibbs, Wendy Healey, Nina Oakman, Monique Oliver, Vanessa Rhead, Lindsay Reid, John Sherahilo, Karen Tacey, Sharon Yorke.

You'll find paintings in oil, mixed media, watercolour and alcohol. Printmaking, jewellery, ceramics, glass, carvings, sculpture, gifts, cards and more.

The great things about St Mary's people tell us, are the light and spacious interior, the generous space around the art and the friendly welcome visitors receive.

Also of course, the delicious refreshments - coffee, tea, homemade cakes, soup and rolls, salad and quiche at lunch time and the chance for a sit down while you soak it all up ... and perhaps decide that you really do want to buy that piece after all!

This year we have workshops taking place daily at 10.30am and 2.00pm please see www.rossparishes.uk/h-art for full details and booking (required for some workshops).

Open Mon-Sat 10am - 5pm. Sun 11am - 5pm

Directions Follow the spire! At the Market House, turn right into Church Street. Steps up into the churchyard. Level access via the gate further along Church Street.

MIRANDA WHITTEN-WALKER h.Art Emerging Artist Bursary Winner

Miranda Whitten-Walker's previous career as a biologist specialising in insects gives her a unique perspective as an artist. Her love of drawing and pull to nature led her to a significant career change in May '24; now Miranda is a full-time artist.

"I find printing thrilling and instinctive. I concentrate on making multi-layer linocut prints using the reduction method."

Living in Kington for the last 3 years gives Miranda direct access to local landscapes and wildlife. She is often out exploring by bicycle or motorbike, stopping to do plein-air sketches. Miranda and her husband Jef are part of the strong Kington Motorbiking community.

"I develop my artworks based on how I feel about a place, its geology, history, and wildlife. In my landscapes, the perspective is often forced to establish a hill more obviously in the context of its surroundings. My prints have a painterly feel with abstractions that hint at the imprints left by humans and animals."

Plans include printing on a larger scale and excitingly a series of abstract pieces inspired by insects. Miranda's website includes a great 'sneak peek' section that gives a first look at what is coming next and an insight into her process: mirandaww.com
